Old Business

- A. The minutes of the February 3, 2009 meeting were approved as written.
- B. Job Descriptions
 - a. Debbie Cowell has completed job descriptions for seven of the Church Council members.
 - b. She has e-mailed them to the appropriate persons.
 - i. Their committees should review them and contact Debbie with changes, if needed.
- C. Stewardship Key Leaders
 - a. Pastor Soli was scheduled to meet with St. Paul's personnel, but that meeting will be rescheduled.
 - b. Questionnaire packets were received from Pr. Soli to assist in addressing necessary issues, and should be distributed to council members and other concerned St. Paul's members as soon as possible.
 - c. Pastor Rod reported that, as yet, we are not ready to begin the ELCA's Stewardship Key Leaders stewardship program.
 - d. While it was emphasized that the new Council, which will begin in June, will need to handle this with urgency, there has been no opportunity as yet to discuss these issues with oncoming Council members.
 - e. It was decided that all SKL questionnaires should be completed by the time the new Council begins.
 - f. Randy Arndt opined that the development of information should begin immediately, instead of putting off this process until April 7th, in order to maintain momentum between monthly meetings.

Pastor Rod Ronneberg, Senior Pastor- Thanks given to George and Charlie Mader for progress made in renovating the downstairs bathrooms.

Pastors' Reports will be available in church office
